MOMO

Whilst MOMO was reported to be a hoax, we took the opportunity to remind parents about using content controls on YouTube, using YouTube Kids as an alternative for younger children, blocking/reporting features on services like WhatsApp and sharing some additional online safety resources.

We certainly hope this information helps! To learn more about apps, games or social networks you can visit the NSPCC site Net Aware or download the free Net Aware app. We tell our children to share, but sometimes sharing online can be dangerous – the Share Aware site will help you find the right way to talk to your child about online safety.

If you need anything else please check out www.o2.co.uk/nspcc or contact the free O2 NSPCC Online Safety Helpline on 0808 800 5002 and we will be happy to help. Our opening hours are Monday to Friday 9am – 7pm.

If you are worried about a child, don't wait until you're certain – you can contact the NSPCC 24/7 by calling 0808 800 5000 texting 88858 or emailing help@nspcc.org.uk
